An Open Letter to Marble Collegiate Church

The following letter was sent to MCC with gratitude for our partnership. As you will see, there are suggestions for strengthening our ties. If you have any further suggestions, please tell Dave Cochran.

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Consistory at your partner church, Blawenburg Reformed Church, thanks you for all of your support. When we began the partnership, neither BRC nor MCC had a clear understanding of how the partnership would evolve. Indeed, it is still evolving. We want you to know that your support has enabled us to thrive at a time when we were thinking of ways to survive. Our membership is small, but we are a very active church, thanks in part to our partnership.

We thank you for the financial help you have given us. We also thank you for the pastoral support that you have given as we discern who our next pastor will be. Every MCC pastor who has led us in worship has given wonderful sermons that have enriched us and strengthened our faith. We also have benefitted from the live stream talk backs that you have offered.

We would like to continue and strengthen the partnership, and we have brainstormed some ways we might do this. Just a few that we discussed include:

- visiting each other to benefit from what each church has to offer.
- participating in more live and streamed events. (see page 9)
- joining together in worship, prayer, and mission events.
- joining together for social events.
- sharing blogs from each church.

There are many other things we could do, but we recommend that we cooperatively establish a few attainable goals for the remainder of the partnership. We would like to engage in activities that will help us grow spiritually through sharing God's word and applying our gifts to helping others. Jesus calls us to do this, so let's work together to make this happen.

We are so thankful that the Lord has led us to this partnership, and we pray that we can continue to work together for the benefit of God's kingdom.

With gratitude,

The Blawenburg Church
Consistory

Nancy Curtis has stepped in to lead worship with us on numerous occasions this year and we are delighted to see how she is growing as a preacher and as a chaplain.

We look forward to having her lead worship again on Pentecost, along with a friend from the Roman Catholic tradition, Jo-Ann Hoffman.

Our partnership with Marble continues to be strong during our time of transition to a new pastor. We're grateful for Mark King's leadership during our Communion Service on April 3 (pictured at left), and appreciated the talk-back session in Cook Hall following worship. We are also grateful for Chad Tanaka Pack's leadership on April 17 and look forward to having Kirsty DePree with us again on May 29.

We commit our gifts to HOSPITALITY caring for those in our congregation and the greater community.

Making a Joyful Noise

Did you know that Evelyn Cochran (left) has been serving our church for over 40 years? We were happy to honor her at the Synod's Lay Recognition Dinner on April 8 at The Imperia in Somerset. Thank you, Evelyn, for participating in worship, choir, Bible study, and for chairing so many committees.

An Official Welcome

Bud and Hilde Lewis have been regularly worshipping with us for more than a year now and have been active with our missions, Bible Study and more. On April 10 we officially welcomed them into the membership of Blawenburg Church via transfer from the Reformed Church of Rocky Hill, and we look forward to growing in faith together for years to come.

Welcome, friends!

Hilde and Bud with their new grand 'kids' — Max and Doo-Daa. What fun to have a granddaughter who raises goats!

Mary & Martha met on April 26 at the home of Bernice VanNostrand. All women were fed both spiritually and physically, and laughter was shared by all!
See next page for details about the May gathering.

We commit our gifts to LIFE-LONG LEARNING providing spiritual growth opportunities for all.

Perspectives on Islam and Christianity by Bob Bradsell, alt.

On Sunday, May 22nd, Princeton management consultant Salim Manzar will be the guest speaker during an Education Hour at 11:30 AM, offering a comparative look at Islam and Christianity from the perspective of his Muslim faith. Mr. Manzar attended Mimi Coffey’s event on March 6 and looks forward to continuing the conversation with us this month.

“At a time of much anxiety about the Muslim faith, we feel this is a valuable service we can offer the community,” says David Cochran, vice president of Blawenburg Church’s governing board. “Mr. Manzar has graciously accepted our invitation to offer this program, and we’re grateful for that.”

The May 22nd program will serve as part 2 in a 3-part series of special programs looking at the Muslim faith and its relationship to Christianity and our culture. In part 1 on March 6th Dr. Maryann Coffey led a program on Understanding Islam. And on Sunday, June 12th, former Blawenburg Minister Kenneth Bradsell, now with the Protestant Church of Oman on the Persian Gulf, will present a first-hand perspective on the subject from that tense part of the world. (read more from Ken Bradsell on page 7)

Salim Manzar is CEO of the consulting firm Princeton Advisory Group. He is an accomplished business, insurance and finance executive and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. He and his wife, Mona, have lived in Central New Jersey for the last 37 years.

More Fellowship & Learning in May

Family Worship on Sunday, May 1 @8:32 in Cook Hall Wendy Herbert will be cooking and the story of the Prodigal Son will be led by Emma Murphy and Morgan VanLiew. We welcome all young people and the young at heart!

Mary & Martha on Tuesday, May 17 @6:30 PM at the home of Bernice VanNostrand. We’ll be looking at Part Three: Living in the Lord’s Presence from the book Pathway of Peace by Cheryl Elton. Come join us for dinner, prayer, discussion, and camaraderie. For more information contact Bernice (vns206@aol.com or 908.359.6579).

Men’s Breakfast on Wednesday, May 18 @7:30 AM at the Blawenburg Café. For more information contact Joe Pavlicek (jpav11999@aol.com or 908.256.6968).

Blaze a Trail: Older Americans Month with the RCA by Barb Pavlicek, Missions Chair

With the Executive Committee of the Synod of the Mid Atlantics, BRC will endorse the Reformed Church Home as our Mission of the Month during the month of May. The theme for this “Older Americans Month” is “Blaze A Trail”. The goal is to promote healthy aging and increase community awareness on the issues pertaining to our seniors. As a result of our successful Rummage Sale in April (see article on page 8) we are able to contribute $1,000.00 to the Benevolent Fund of the Home. It would be wonderful if we could add an additional $500.00 to this amount from the congregation. Please give as generously as you can. You may use a Mission Fund envelope from your offering envelopes, a pew envelope, a check in the offering box, or simply write a check and mail it to the church. Be sure to put “Reformed Church Home” on the memo line. Look for a flier in the Sunday bulletins. Your Mission Team thanks you for your generosity and for being a Trailblazer!

For more information about the Reformed Church Home in Old Bridge, visit www.reformedchurchhome.org

Blawenburg Church is happy to have been able to send $900 to the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen (TASK) to support their many programs, thanks to the generosity of all who attended our Rummage Sale. TASK feeds those who are hungry in the Trenton area and offers programs to encourage self-sufficiency and improve the quality of life of its patrons. For more info visit www.trentonsoupkitchen.org

Gardening at Crawford House

Spring is in the air and that means it is time to garden! Even if you don't have a green thumb you are invited to work alongside the ladies of Crawford House as we prepare and cultivate a working garden at their home.

We will be meeting at least one Monday per month, April through October. If you'd like to participate, please contact Ethel Terhune—908.359.6027.

Join us Monday, May 9, 6:00 to 7:00 PM!

Listen Generously A note from our Mission Partner, Ken Bradsell, in Oman

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God.” (John 1:1-2)

“Do you indeed disbelieve in He who created the earth in two days and attribute to him equals?
That is the Lord of the worlds.” (Fussilat [Elaborated] 41:9)

Thus began a lively “Scriptural Reasoning” conversation in our living room a couple of months ago, our fourth session on Muslim/Christian dialogue and understanding. There were eighteen of us. Nine of us were from the Protestant Church in Oman. Nine were Muslim friends including some Imams from the Sultanate’s Department of Religious Affairs, and a couple of college teachers. We had just dined together in our garden (life’s tough in Oman in winter) and had settled in for our evening discussion. “Scriptural Reasoning,” first developed at Oxford University in England, is a process in which we read each other’s texts for understanding and to deepen our appreciation of one-another’s faith. The process is a simple one where-in the Muslim’s read aloud the Christian text, the Christian’s read aloud the Muslim text. We engage in conversation in which we wonder together about the texts and explain to each other the understanding of the text from the perspective of our faith. Questions are raised to be pondered and dwelt on rather than corner, incite, or cover a looming argument. Reading together in this way we often gain insights into each other’s Scriptures from those who are reading them for the first time.

American writer Krista Tippett, writing in her just published, Becoming Wise, An inquiry into the Mystery and Art of Living (Penguin Press, 2016) says, “We’ve all been trained to be advocates for what we care about. This has its place and its value in civil society, but it can get in the way of the axial move of deciding to care about each other.” Ms. Tippett goes on to quote Rachel Naomi Remen who teaches young doctors the practice of “generous listening,” listening to the other “powered by curiosity – a willingness to be surprised, to let go of assumptions and take in ambiguity.” (p.19)

Marcia and I are returning to the USA this June after almost 2-years in the Sultanate of Oman, a small place about the size of Kansas, but a place of world importance grounded in its commitment to listening to the voices of multiple faiths, listening to regional and world leaders in government, listening to warring voices among the factions within their own Muslim faith, and encouraging all of these, and us too, to listen generously for understanding. We are coming home in the hope that we can lend our voices to changing the narrative in our own homeland – that we might be emissaries of generous listening.

Our brief experience with our expatriate Christian communities, and with our Omani friends has taught us another truth Krista Tippett writes of: “that when people who disagree with each other come together with a goal of gaining better understanding of why the other believes what they do, good things come of that.”

We look forward to being with the BRC congregation on June 12, a few days after returning from Muscat for the summer.

Plan to attend worship on June 12 and

Rummage Sale Was a HUGE Success!

by Jean Beachell, Rummage Sale Chair

The rummage sale committee would like to THANK all of you who contributed to making this year's sale a record breaking success!! All of you who helped us by contributing, unpacking, organizing and pricing were AWESOME! That was a huge amount of work this year. Thank you to Allison and Kevin for the hot dog lunches. They were delicious. The lunches and bake sale were a big help to our success. Thank you to Gracie Johnson for parking our cars on Friday and greeting our bargain hunters on Saturday.

The total profit came to $9,531.75. We have shared our profit by contributing to TASK in Trenton and the Reformed Church Home. (see page 6 for more info)

We will use part of the remaining money to redo the floors in the east and west foyers of the sanctuary.

JUNE BEACON

Please submit your completed articles or photos to Barb Pavlicek (bjpmay1998@aol.com) and Sarah Hong (brc1832@verizon.net) no later than Monday, May 23.

Thank you for your attention to the deadline so that we can continue to publish the Beacon on the 1st of each month!

Consistory Highlights

Meeting of Monday, April 18, 2016 @7:30 PM in Cook Hall

For a full copy of the minutes, please stop by the church office during open hours (see back page).

1. Consistory amended last month's Minutes to reveal that a complete handrail is not needed at this time but a grip may be ordered; also discussed and were reminded of prior approval of the use of beer and wine at functions (church and rental).
2. A letter will be sent to MCC thanking them for their support in our partnership and suggestions will be made on how to strengthen this partnership.
3. The Search Team is meeting weekly and setting up face-to-face interviews with candidates.
4. The Worship Team continues to evaluate the form and content of the worship service. Volunteers are still needed as liturgists. Speak to Gracie.
5. The Finance Team is keeping on top of payments. Twenty percent of rummage sale proceeds will go to missions—TASK and the Reformed Church Home.
6. The Care Team is organizing meals for the Tabacks as Louise recovers from surgeries. Thank you for your contributions.
7. The Missions Team reported that monthly gardening has started at Crawford House. The mission for May will be the Reformed Church Home.
8. For Life-Long Learning, there will be two program offerings focusing on Christianity and Islam—one on May 22 with Salim Manzar and another on June 12 with Rev. Ken Bradsell.
9. More children are enrolling in BVS, and summer camp is filling nicely.
10. The Nominations Team is looking for candidates to fill one elder and one deacon position of outgoing Consistory members.
11. The Communications Team continues to work on publicity, directory update, expanded press list, upcoming articles for press release, communication survey, and other administrative issues.
12. We regretfully accepted Sarah's resignation, but we send our blessings to her, Marc, and the children on their new venture at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Her official last day with us is May 31.
13. Our meeting closed with prayer for our church in transition and for health issues of community members.

Nominating Team

We are looking to nominate one elder and one deacon.
Please consider serving God and our church in this way.
Let Alan Taback or Chip Parmele know if you're interested!

Memorial Hall Rentals

Please share the following information with your friends or neighbors who might be interested:

The Memorial Hall warehouse space, which is just under 2000 sq. ft., is available for short-term or long-term rental, but most importantly now for special event rentals like Birthday Parties, art or craft shows, etc.

We also have two other spaces available for long-term rentals: one 300 sq. ft. finished office space upstairs, accessible by the back staircase; and one 496 sq. ft. unfinished space downstairs that can be closed off, with its own bathroom, which is perfect for an artist or craftsman.

A Bittersweet Farewell

Dear friends at BRC –

It has come time for me to say a bittersweet good bye. My husband, Marcus, has been offered a wonderful position at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and our family will be leaving New Jersey in mid-June. THANK YOU for all of your love and support this past year. It has been wonderful working with you all in service to our Lord.

I will be doing all I can to help during this time of transition and encourage you to go on our website and share the job posting for Church Administrator (shown below) with anyone who may be interested. We hope to fill the position by the end of May.

With love and gratitude,
Sarah Hong

Right: Abigail and Matthijs read while their mama works. Thanks for allowing them to tag-along on some Monday mornings :)

Job Opening: Part-Time Administrator

Blawenburg Reformed Church
Blawenburg (Montgomery Township), NJ
Part-time: 15 – 20 hours per week

Blawenburg Reformed Church is a small established church that has been faithfully serving God and the community for 184 years. We’re looking for a friendly and organized administrator to serve alongside us.

The Church Administrator is responsible for the management of the church office and serves as a primary assistant to the pastor and first contact point and face for the church. As such, it is expected that the Church Administrator maintain a welcoming and courteous office for church members, visitors, and those communicating with the church.

Responsibilities include working with the Pastor and Worship Team to prepare worship materials; working with the Finance Chair to manage church finances; working with the Communications Team to relay news and events within the congregation and the broader community via flyers, newsletters, online calendars, and other venues; managing email and phone correspondence for the church; and maintaining the church website.

The Administrator should be competent in Microsoft Word and Excel and display a willingness to learn software such as Quickbooks and Microsoft Publisher. Familiarity with WordPress and basic audio editing software, such as Audacity, is a plus.

If interested, please send a resume to BlawenburgChurch@gmail.com or Blawenburg Church, PO Box 266, Blawenburg, NJ 08504.

Pastoral Search Update

The search team had 3 interviews on April 20 that went well and we have received 6 new applications this past month. We are working hard to find the right person to lead us now and into the future. Please continue to pray for our team, for our future pastor, and for the future of our church.
