Psalm 56:3
In you Lord, my God, I put my trust.

Lord, I can't walk through life alone. Please take my hand, and guide me gently every step of the way — until You call me home. Amen.

These days it seems that so many of my prayers begin with thoughts of anxiety, uncertainty, and fears for our country and our world. My anxious thoughts spiral down to my most personal concerns for family, health, and wellbeing.

What to do? How to do it? When to do it? And that nagging demon thought:
What will people think?

Recently I came across the "I Don't Know Prayer". Read it knowing that God knows what we don't know.

I Don't Know Prayer

You just go somewhere quiet, and you sit at the feet of God.

You say, "I don't know."

I don't know where to go from here.

I don't know how to process this.

I don't know what to do with these emotions.

I don't know how to handle this situation.

With whatever little grain of faith you have, you say, "But You know."

And you leave it there.

God most certainly hears your prayer.

Put Amen, if you need it.

God, please redeem the one who shares this and calls on You with a genuine heart.

Enjoy this song about when prayers are not answered according to our desires. We still need to trust in God.
