

Prayer Corner 32

By Lee Bekir

Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever.
Psalm 107

I have always believed in miracles. There have been countless miracles in my life, so many I have even forgotten many of them. The most recent one is when I had to pick up my grandson from the school bus stop. The house had a long driveway, and we were having a bad thunderstorm. I am usually an early person, so after about 10 minutes of waiting for no apparent reason, I pulled up my van forward about 50 feet. A minute later, I heard the crack of a tree falling exactly where I had been just a few minutes earlier. A miracle!

I wrote the following prayer of gratitude.

Heavenly Father,

We come before You with hearts full of gratitude, acknowledging that Your hand is always at work in our lives. Through Your Son, Jesus Christ, we have been given the gift of salvation, grace, and a constant reminder of Your deep love for us.

Lord, we thank You for the miracles we see—those moments when You answer our prayers so clearly, bringing healing, hope, and breakthroughs when we need them most. These moments remind us of Your faithfulness and power, and we give You all the glory.

Father, we know that miracles come in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes, they are as small as finding the right path to take, like discovering the perfect church to join—whether it is Blawenburg Reformed Church or another church family.

Other times, miracles are as vast and world-changing as ending a war or bringing peace where none seems possible. In every case, Your hand is at work, and we are in awe of Your divine plans.

But Lord, today, we especially want to thank You for the miracles we did not even know took place. How many times have You shielded us from harm, opened doors we did not see, or worked behind the scenes to align our lives with Your perfect will? We may never fully understand the depth of Your care, but we trust that You are always with us, guiding and protecting us in ways beyond our comprehension.

Jesus, we thank You for being the bridge between us and the Father, for interceding on our behalf, and for showing us the ultimate miracle of Your sacrifice on the cross. Because of You, we can live each day with hope, knowing that we are loved, saved, and held in God's hands.

Lord, teach us to be people of gratitude. May we never take for granted the countless ways You bless us, whether we see them or not. Help us to end each day in prayer, giving thanks for the seen and unseen ways You have worked in our lives.

With grateful hearts, we praise You for Your goodness, Your faithfulness, and the endless miracles of Your love.

In Jesus' name, we pray,

Amen

Listen to this original hymn based on Psalm 107, written by Lee.

Miracles

Take a moment to give thanks to God.